

“A TEAM APPROACH TO VETERINARY SURGICAL CARE”
BROCHURE ORDER FORM

ACVS
AMERICAN COLLEGE of
VETERINARY SURGEONS

This straightforward brochure conveys the importance of the team approach to veterinary care – animal owner, general veterinarian and ACVS board-certified veterinary surgeon – when a thoughtful, compassionate decision about surgical care needs to be made. In addition to explaining the interdependent relationship, the brochure describes the credentialing process required to become a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Surgeons.

An area on the brochure provides the opportunity for personalization. The brochure nicely complements the ACVS "What is a Diplomate/Surgery Specialist" poster (there are both small animal and large animal versions)*.
