Who Are We?

Founded in 1965, the American College of Veterinary Surgeons (ACVS) is the specialty board which sets the standards for advanced professionalism in veterinary surgery.

ACVS is the AVMA-recognized veterinary specialty organization for certification of veterinarians in large animal surgery and small animal surgery. ACVS defines the standards of surgical excellence for the profession, promotes advancements in veterinary surgery, and provides the latest in surgical educational programs.

Following the 2021 certification examination, ACVS includes more than 2,290 Diplomates.
